BIG AUDITORIUM

A stock company has been formed in Burlington for the purpose of building an auditorium in that city that will seat 3,000 and with a stage that will accommodate a chorus of 700. This movement is the result of the experience of the Vermont Musical Festival last year, when it was found that Burlington did not have sufficient accommodations for such a gathering. Dr. W. NORTHFIELD ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

The voters at the village meeting were amused and later made indignant by a statement in the St. Albans Messenger, the basis of which wes a brief item in the Monipelier Journal of the night before. The Messenger goes on to say that the electric right plant at Northfield is inadequate and that the village contemplates lessing, selling or disposing of it in some way in order to be able to make a contract with the Consolidated company to furnish power for lights. Dr. W. B. Mayo read the item at the village meeting and the derisive laugh which followed showed the feeling of the voters, who grew angry as they gave the matter more thought. The truth is that no one with authority to speak for the village has ever said anything to any electric company about furnishing power for lights for the village.

The Board of Trade has had some talk with one or two companies about running wires into town to furnish power for running the state quarries, and in their talk with these parties it may have been suggested that in case the village should see fit to do it an arrangement might be made whereby the village would hire power from the company at such times as the village is now compelled to use steam power at the plant, but the trustees have taken no action in the matter, as the plant is adequate for lighting purposes. No one has hel any idea of using the power furnished by any one save that of the village, except for slate purposes and in case of an emergency, providing power could be bought cheaper than steam. As to leasing, selling or disposing of the plant, the entire suggestion is entirely without any warrant. Vermont, an explanation is hereby given:

Some fourteen years since I we connected with a business firm in Chicago with whom I had only a small salary and percentage in profits, if any were made, as my interest. I had nothing to do with the collecting or paying of the accounts or in any way signing notes. After the partnership was dissolved I learned the company had given several thousand dollars worth of notes, was called upon to pay, and did pay, between sixteen and seventeen nundred dollars, which was double the amount that I ever received from the company.

In 1889 I became tressurer of the Spring field Emery Wheel Mig. Co., then located in Springfield, Mers., but afterward in Bridgeport. When I became interested in this company it was heavily involved and holders of the paper insisted that before the same could be moved to Bridgeport I must sign (with five others) paper amounting to holders of the paper insisted that before the same could be moved to Bridgeport I must sign (with five others) paper amounting to over $20,0.1. By the assurance of the board of directors that bonds would be issued and I could thus cancel the obligation, I did sign it. Before the bonds were issued the directors revoked the order to issue bonds and my name was left on over $'\._{\cup{20}}' \cup{20} worth of paper. I have since paid over $6,00.0 of those obligations. Now, as a matter of fact, to rid myself of any further liabilities of these two above named companies, from which I had never received any personal benefit, I did apply in 1889 for a discharge in bankruptcy and the same was granted a few days since.

The article referred to in yours and the Barre paper is misleading, as it would appear that either I was in unsuccessful business man or that I had gone into bankruptcy for personal gain. I wish to say to my friends through the Journal that I have always paid my personal bills one hundred cents on the dollar and always expect to be able to do so; also, that the business which I have had the management of for the last nine years has enjoyed a good financial standing and well never more Interragic death of Major Seth Johnson in June 12 ut.

Late in the afternoon on Monday, June 11, the dead body of a man was discovered in the Wincoski, near the high bank wall in the Central Vermont yard. Investigation showed it to be the body of Major Seth Johnson of No. 27 Kent street, Montpelier, who had been missing since Saturday even-who had been missing since Saturday evening, June 9, when Wallace's circus exhibited in Montpelier.

The theory at the time was that Johnson, while in an intoxicated condition, fell off the wall, struck a rock in the river and was instantly killed. The physicians who performed an autopsy declared death was due to drowning. A deep cut in the dead man's head was supposed to have been made by his striking a rock when he fell in the stream. In his pocket wer found $1.31. It was known that he had a considerable amount of money with him when he left his wife Saturday evening, ostensibly to go to the circus.

The widow and relatives of the dead man The widow and relatives of the dead man were not satisfied with the explanation of the physicians as to the cause of his death. They declared that Johnson had not been drinking the Saturday evening previous, and they were confident he never would have fallen off the wall near which his body was found, had he not met with foul play. They appealed to State's Attorney Hoar, who commenced an investigation about two weeks after Johnson's body was found. This investigation resulted in the indictment by the grand jury last September, of Frank Miller of Northfield for the murder of Johnson. The city is soon to go before the court with a motion asking that the injunction granted on Thursday by Judge Watson be modified so that the city can again bring the matter before the State board of railroad commissioners. making any further move in the case, at least for the present, as the order, though temporary in name, is permaneut in its effect. Is the proposed motion on the part of the city to have the injunction modified prevails that would give the city another inning in the game.

General Manager Stowell says he had expected the injunction would be granted, as he believed the railroad was on the right side of the question. He was not looking upon the outcome as a victory, but considered rather that the city had defeated itself by getting into a false position. Asked if it was true, as reported, that the city had made overtures for a compromise, Mr. Stowell said that such a proposal had not been made to him personally, but he understood that one had been made. There had been a time when the road was willing to compromise but that time had now passed and there would be no compromise made. As to clearing the buried spur, that would be done and the cars in the More shed moved. No order had yet been given to have the work done. It was not settled just when it would be done in the night or on a Sunday. Bunday.

IN MANILA.

WASHINGTON, April 4.-After a consultation with the President Secretary Root last night sent a cable message to Gen. MacArthur, giving him instruc-tions regarding Aguinaldo and the views of the administratton on some recommendations as to Philippine affairs made by Gen. MacArthur. The contents of the cablegram will not be made public for the present.

Aguinaldo is still held as a prisoner and, while he will be treated with kindness, there is no disposition to allow him liberty until it is demonstrated that he intends to comply fully with the amnesty terms and his oath of allegiance. Aguinaldo is more than an ordinary prisoner and it has not yet been determined whether or not he is responsible for the violations of the laws of war.

MANILA, April 4 -A daughter of the former chief of the Katipunan society, and who is president of the Woman's Peace League, has been permitted a long interview with Aguinaldo. She reports having found him in a quandary, professedly desirous of peace, yet reuctant to abandon the idea of Filipino independence.

"He seemed unable to make up his mind regarding the oath of allegiance to the United States," she says, "be cause he had sworn eternal fealty to the Filipino flag, and had been elected leader of the revolution, though he bowed somewhat to public sentiment. He wanted a conference in order to ascertain the wishes of the Filipino people, and suggested that a conven-tion consisting half of insurgents and half of Pacificos should decide the matter. I told him that ninety per cent of the population were in favor of peace and he responded, 'even so, my lot is yet with those upholding the cause of the insurgents. With their consent I would quit, but otherwise how can I? By the trickery of the Americans I was captured. Now that I am a prisoner I must consider what is best. Liberty is sweet, but those whom I deserted would hate me. Hard is my situation. If paroled I would respect my word, but some-times I think exile and imprisonment would be preferable."

IN CHINA

YOKOHAMA, April 3 .- Russia's reply to Japan's protest against the Man-churian convention is regarded as unsatisfactory, and further vigorous representations will follow. Prince Konoye Atsumaro, president of the House of Peers, in the course of an inflammatory speech, openly dis-cussed the probable results of a war between Japan and Russia, and said that Japan could count upon the friendly neutrality of Great Britain and Germany. He declared that the United States would not interfere and that France would only cause uneasi-ness by the employment of her Anna-mez forces and by a navel demonstration off Formosa. This, he predicted, would be the limit of French action; and therefore Japan's vastly superior army could be enabled without any very great difficulty to drive Russia out of Manchuria.

Pekin, April 4.—The Chinese government has formally notified Russia that China, owing to the attitude of the powers, is not to sign the Manchurian convention.

"It is China's desire," says the for-mal notification, "to keep on friendly terms with all nations. At present she is going through a period which is the most perllous in the empire's his-tory, and it is necessary that she should have the friendship of all. However much she might be willing to grant any special privilege to one power, when others object it is impossible that for the sake of making one nation friendly, she should alienate the sym-pathies of all others."

An insurrection is reported from Song-Pha, where insurgents are raiding and killing. Insurgents are also raiding in the vicinity of Pao Ting. German troops sent to rout them killed 250 without losing a man. Insurgents are also operating in the vicinity of Moukeden and Japanese papers say that they were undoubtedly excited by Russia to furnish an excuse for the assertion of Russian authority. Pekin, April 4.—Li Hung Chang will soon depart from Pekin. The Emperor is displeased with his conduct of the negotiations. When Li Hung Chang was made one of the peace envoys he was pro-Russian in sentiment but there was no cause for complaint on that score until the Manchurian Now it is believed Li has proved so earnest an advocate of the Russian cause and has so strenuously worked for the signature of agreement that his own government felt obliged to deprive him of the power to further that agreement. If this understanding is correct it is believed an effectual check has been administered to Russia in her thought the Emperor of China would scarcely have acted in this summary fashion had he not had assurances of support from some other powers.

IN SOUTH AFRICA.

CAPE COAST CAST LE, Gold Coas Colony, April 3.—The leader of the men belonging to the West African regiment which recently mutinied because they had not been returned to Sierra Leone at the time they understood they were to be sent home, has been court martialed and publicly shot. The rest of the mutineers have been shipped to the island of Sherbro, forty miles from Sierra Leone. CAPE TOWN, April 3 .- Lord Kitchener has granted permission to three Rand mining companies which later will be increased to seven to resume work with fifty stamps each, provided that the maximum wages paid to miners be rations and five shillings a day, equal to the wages of the irregular troopers, to prevent discontent among the latter. The remainder of the miners' ordinary pay will be devoted to a fund for the benefit of families of resi-dents of the Rand killed in the war. The Transvaal Chamber of mines has issued a circular objecting to these wages and the conditions of work.

NAUWPOORT, April 3 .- In consequence of the renewed activity of the Boers the night trains north are discontinued.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

(Benson's Plaster Is Pain's Master.) In the days of 'wild cat' money in the West, the Ames shovels were used as ourrency. They were as stable as gold; their price did not vary a cent in twenty years. The very name of Oliver Ames & Son, was a synonym for honesty. It was current all over the world.

over the world.
On the same principle Benson's Porous Plaster is the universal standard external remedy. To say it is a "good" plaster does not describe it; it is the best possible plaster. For every disease in which an external rem-edy is available, Benson's Plaster is used almost as a matter of course.

Bensen's Plaster quickly relieves and cures where other modes of treatment are either exasperatingly slow or have no good effect whatever. Coughs, colds, lumbago, kidney trouble, rheumatism, lame back, etc., are at case benefited and soon cured.

etc., are at case benefited and soon cured.

Capsicum, Strengthening and Belladenna plasters have none of the curative virtues of Benson's. More than 5,000 physicians and druggists have commended Benson's Plaster as a remedy in which the public may have implicit confidence; while, in a comparative test with other plasters, Benson's has received fifty-five highest awards. Beware of substitutes and cheap imitations.
